

MARY GREENE

Mary Greene was born in the Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia, in the lovely Baptist Valley, county seat of Tazewell County, known then as Jeffersonville, Virginia.

Mary's father was William Augustus Kanady, her mother was Sarah Warren. She was the eldest child. Her mother was a staunch member of the LDS Church, having embraced it in 1845. Her father did not join the Church and objected to his wife's teaching the principles of the Church to the family. Mary's first husband did not join the LDS faith. They had four children. When he died she took her four children with her mother and three sisters, boarded the train and came to Utah in 1870. She was baptized in the Endowment House, Salt Lake City, and did much temple work.

Mary felt she was called by the Church to be a doctor. The Legislature passed a bill requiring all to receive a certificate to perform their duties, and after due instructions, Mary studied under Dr. Ellis Shipp and received her certificate. She also worked under Dr. R. A. Hasbooreck, a member of the Electric Medical Society, and received a certificate from them.

Mary married Flavour Greene in 1873. They moved to southern Utah (Dixie). She was very ill on the journey. They settled in Rockville, and the children went to school there. Later they moved to St. George. At each place, Mary practiced her profession. About 1882, Mary came to Heber City, where for a few years she was the only doctor in the county. She was kind and very helpful. She died of pneumonia November 7, 1895, in Heber City, Utah. Her final request was that no black was to be worn at her services and the band should play "Nearer, My God, to Thee." These requests were fulfilled.

She lived a life of service to her fellow men. She left a family of 10 children. She was buried in Salt Lake City, Utah.

ham Young University with an A.B. degree in 1943.

Between 1937 and 1939 he filled a mission to the East German Mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Prior to his departure for that mission, he was married to Virginia Tucker, daughter of George Warren and Keziah Frances Mower Tucker of Provo, Utah. Virginia Tucker Green was born in Fairview, Utah, October 5, 1917.

While attending the BYU this couple had two children, namely: Hanalee Green, born 18 July, 1940, and Sondra Green, born September 28, 1942, both in Provo, Utah.

Dr. Green's medical education was completed at the University of Utah in 1947, from where he graduated with his M.D. degree. He interned 15 months in the U. S. Marine Hospital in Staten Island, New York. He served in the following hospitals as surgical resident: Coffey Hospital, Portland, Oregon, 1948-49; (while at Portland a son, Steven Robert, was born, October 11, 1948); U. S. Public Health Service Hospital, Baltimore, Maryland, 1949-51, with teaching assignment at the John Hopkins Hospital, 1950-51; U. S. Public Health Service Hospital in Staten Island, New York, 1951-52. While in Staten Island, another son was born, Richard Raymond Green, on February 18, 1953. And finally, one year was served as chief of orthopedic surgery at the U. S. Public Health Service Hospital in Seattle, Washington, 1952-53.

Dr. Green began private practice in Provo, Utah, in the specialty of surgery in July, 1953, and continued one year.

In July, 1954, he joined Drs. Karl O. Nielson and Willard J. Draper at the Heber Hospital, doing principally surgery. After their successive deaths, Dr. Green was

DR. R. RAYMOND GREEN

Dr. R. Raymond Green was born to William Raymond and Dettat Leona Collins Green on January 29, 1917, in Provo, Utah. He received his elementary education in the Provo city schools, graduating from Brig-chief of Heber Hospital between 1957 and 1960.

On the 1st of March, 1960, Dr. Green established his own private practice, separate from Heber Hospital.

While living in Heber the two daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Green married two fine local men. Sondra was first to marry, on September 9, 1960, in the Salt Lake LDS Temple, to Steven A. VanWagoner, son of Ammon and Phyllis Cummings Van Wagoner, and on July 27, 1961, Honalee Green was married to Carl William Seiter, son of Walter H. and Alice Facer Seiter, in the Swiss LDS Temple.

JOHN GALLAGHER, SARAH ROBINSON AND ELVIRIA BRITTINGHAM

John Gallagher was born December 14, 1809, in Liverpool, England, son of Thomas Gallagher and Ann Stephensen.

He married Sarah Robinson, from which union issued three children: Thomas, John William, and Emma.

Married to Mary Elviria Brittingham. Children: Ephraim, Mary Elviria, and eleven other children not listed.

John Gallagher's parents came from Ireland. He had two brothers, William and Edward. He grew to manhood in England, working at his trade of tailor. He was a very good one. He loved drama and acted on some of the largest stages. He played in the early theaters in Utah and was one of the leading men in their company. He was outstanding in drama. A very fine penman, in England he did much of the scribes for them. He kept a place for people who belonged to the Church. They could find hiding and a place to eat and sleep. He heard of the Prophet Joseph Smith and of his teachings and became converted and was baptized. He managed a mission house for the Elders. His greatest desire was to come to America. After many delays he, with his wife and children, set sail. He married Sarah Robinson of his parish in the Church of St. Martins-in-the-Fields, Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, in 1839.

They went into Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, where they lived awhile. Then they moved to St. Louis, Missouri. Later they went to New Orleans, where he left his family to go to St. Louis, Missouri, to see if he could get located in his business as a tailor. He found things in St. Louis very good, so he sent for his little family. Accordingly he met the boat and he was handed the three small children. They didn't know what had become of the mother, as she boarded the boat with them. Some of the workers on board had heard a splash, as if a body were falling in the water. They thought the mother had got up to attend the children and had fallen into the river. This was a blow to grandfather.

He met Mary Elviria Brittingham (my grandmother) at the St. Louis mission, where she embraced the gospel and was baptized. They seemed to be meant for each other, and were married. She had seven children. This totaled 10 children in the family. They had 13 children born to them. Grandmother said he was so good to her and her children that he made a heaven on earth for them. He began to make plans to come to Utah, so they could be with the saints. They left St. Louis in the fall of 1863, traveling with the Captain Herber company, and walked all the way.

Their clothes were made of gray homespun linesey. He was a tailor by profession. He was the first official postmaster of Heber, delivering letters from house to house free of charge. He kept the county records and was prominent in civic affairs. He took out his citizenship at the age of 42. He had to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign power, prince, state and sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the queen of Great Britain and Ireland.

JOHN T. GILES

John T. Giles, son of Frederick and Mary Ann Moulton, was born in "the old fort," appointed Roy D. Moulton as the first chief of police. The force included four policemen in addition to the chief, and with a radio equipped car they provided 24-hour protection. Lowell Thacker succeeded Mr. Moulton as chief, but held office only a short time before appointment of the present chief, Ferris Clegg.

Mayor Jaicoletti also expanded the city's water storage system, which was first constructed in 1905 under the direction of Mayor Joseph A. Rasband. The system was expanded to 1.5 million gallons of storage in 1952 and a chlorination purification plant was built to insure a pure supply of water for the community.

By 1953 Mayor Jaicoletti had begun a complete installation of sewage disposal lines in the city and the construction of a full treatment plant at a cost of $325,000. Heber was the second of Utah's third class cities to install such a system.

Because the streets were almost completely torn up with the construction of the new sewer system the mayor began a complete resurfacing program and by 1955 the more than 21 miles of city streets had been resurfaced.

The city ball park was lighted in 1953 to accommodate night events, and in that year a new pumper was also purchased for the city fire department along with a portable first aid unit including two resuscitators.

AKG
The Wasatch County Youth Coordinating Council was established in 1953 through the cooperation of Ferrin Van Wagoner, superintendent of county schools. Then in 1954 the Little League Baseball Diamond was constructed with a complete water system for the grass.

Curb and guttering was extended along Main Street to the city limits on the south and to Sixth North, as well as along west First South.

Another pumper fire engine was purchased in 1955 at a cost of $25,393.00, making the Heber valley department one of the best fire fighting units in the state.

Many other improvements have been made by Mayor Jaicoletti to add to the beauty of the city and to facilitate the services of city government to the people of the community.

Still another feature of governmental service in the community has been the post office. John W. Witt, who operated a small store in the northwest part of Heber, was the community's first postmaster, though he was never officially commissioned by the government. He would receive letters from Provo and Salt Lake, and hold them in his store until patrons called for them.

Organized mail service from the "outside world" was begun in 1862 when Isaac O. Wall began carrying mail on horseback during the summer months. No service was provided during the winter. In Spring months when high water in Provo River made it impossible for horses to cross, Mr. Wall extended a cable from trees on either side of the river and transferred mail pouches with the rider from Provo.

Maron Rich Hiatt was Heber's next mayor, taking office in 1948. He successfully completed the city airport, the community Memorial Building and the new Snake Creek power plant.

Councilmen serving with Mayor Hiatt were Fred Carlile, Sherman Giles, Don Hicken and Raymond Jiacoletti.

The community building, a $40,000 structure, houses the fire department on the lower floor, and included offices for the city government and the Heber Light and Power Company. The upper floor, which has a separate outside entrance, has a large assembly room with adjoining kitchen and lounge facilities. Second floor rooms are used by civic and community groups including the Boy Scouts of America, the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Mayor Hiatt also directed the hard surfacing of roads through the cemetery and added to the beautification of the cemetery site.

Heber's most popular mayor in terms of years of service is its present chief executive, Raymond N. Jiacoletti. Elected in 1949, he has served continuously since that time.

At the completion of Mayor Jiacoletti's first term it was decided by the city council that the offices of mayor and councilmen would be four year positions, and that the mayor and two of the councilmen would be elected in 1952 for four years, with the other three council posts to be expanded to four years in the 1954 elections.

City officials who have served with Mayor Jiacoletti have included the following:

1950-51: Fred Carlile, Sherman Giles, Merrill J. Murdock, Rex Whiting and LaMar Watkins, councilmen; Don Hicken, city recorder and Mary L. Duke, treasurer.

1952-53: Fred Carlile, Andrew Mohr, Merrill Murdock, LaMar Watkins and Sherman Giles, councilmen; Rulon Carlile, recorder.

1954-55: Ray Berg, Merrill Murdock, Sherman Giles, LaMar Watkins and Andrew Mohr, councilmen.

1956-57: Sherman Giles, Harry McMillan, Axel Holmes, Allen Curry and Ray Berg, councilmen. Merrill Murdock was later appointed to fill a vacancy when Mr. Curry moved to Provo.

1958-59: Ray Berg, Merrill Murdock, Tom Carlile, Harry McMillan and Axel Holmes, councilmen. Later Mr. Holmes moved to California and Walter Montgomery was appointed to fill the vacancy.

1960-61: Ray Berg, Guy McDonald, Merrill Murdock, Tom Carlile and ElRoy Van Wagoner, councilmen.

One of Mayor Jiacoletti's first projects as mayor was to institute a city-wide garbage collection service. He also reclassified the city business license structure, revised the city accounting and auditing system and brought in a group insurance and retirement program for city employees.

In 1951 he organized the first Heber City Police Department and
